

FOOD IS SABOTAGED

Roosevelt Scorch

Roosevelt University . . . Chicago, Illinois

"Of the people, by the people, for the Hell of it."

Vol. XVI — No. 11½

31

Dec. 5, 1960

Student Zionist Organization Fights Socialist Labor Society

The Student Zionist Organization today launched a full scale attack on the Arab Students Socialist Labour Society (abbreviated A.S.S.L.S.) today. Hardy combat raged for nearly ten minutes until the president of the ASSLS, Boo Huzzah El Hatkib reached into his pocket and whipped out a portable espresso machine. There was a lull in the vicious hand-to-hand combat while the participants took a coffee break, but the fighting resumed when one of the ASSLS charged that the Zionists were sitting on his side of the room. The Zionists claimed insolvency, but the Arabs flatly refused to discuss the situation.

As the battle raged on, the Arabs were heard to scream, "Long live Judeah!" Another cessation of hostilities was called while the Zionists huddled to discuss the issue. "It seems that we're both fighting for the same thing," conjectured Zev Rudenko — one of the hardy kibbutzniks to be nationals. "Ken," replied Aroo Ben Cannan — famous Exodus Sabra-turned-Palmachnik, as he unwound his forty-foot bull-whip. His freedom-fighting friends looked at him as if to say "A mis-shuginer — so?," turned as if one man, and trod gently over Aroo Ben Cannan with their kosher kombatt klodhoppers.

Meanwhile, on the other side of the room, the Arab students (who had been gaily gulping gargantuan demi-tasses of coffee) were sitting wide-eyed (over-coffee) and fancy free on their fezes, bemoaning the slip of the tongue which caused the battle to end.

The motto of this brief episode in the life of a Student Zionist is: "Never attack an Arab Socialist Student at Roosevelt University."

be able to give more awards, but there aren't, so we can't."

Akapular Speaks

Accepting the award on behalf of the newspaper, editor Stanley Kapular said, of the newspaper, editor Stanley Kapular said, of the newspaper, editor Stanley Kapular said: "Boy, it feels good to be perfect!"

When asked to comment further, Kapular said No. 333)) copy refer dummy set furschluggnering sludgeflip setand make-up page 7 jumps from 27 mile run won by AP UPI wires set to roll castro says Havana yacht club will have charcoal UPS supper with coffee is now $1.00 at more exclusive restaurants where 7 year old girl attacked by demented dog bites postman in Lower Cambodia last week 7000 fleeing doughnuts were selling at the new low price of full moon tonight. 30-30-30 proper progenitors praise punctual protagonistic progeny; premature parental passion produces poignantly punishing papooses.

Procedure

Student Peace Union Celebrates Pearl Harbor

This Wednesday the RU branch of the Student Peace Union will have a booth at the IOC carnival celebrating the 19th anniversary of the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor.

In an exclusive interview yesterday, acting chairman of the RUSPU, Tom Dangler, told in what I call a brilliant display of militant pacifism, we will proceed to State and Madison, where we will be joined by 5,000 U of O students. Upon a given signal — the release of 10,000 doves from the Madison-Wabash L station — all demonstrators will sit on their hands at the intersection. I would like to remind all those who plan on coming to bring umbrellas; not for the pigeons — the fire department is also expected. When sitting at the intersection, we will be addressed by a Special Surprise Guest: a secret member of HUAC.

"This will be followed by a testimonial banquet at the private dining room in the old wing of the Bridewell.

Carnival Caper
"We will then proceed to our booth at the carnival, which is, as you know, a booth that relies on skill; the participant must throw radioactive darts at mice in a treadmill. If the wounds cause sterility, the winner will receive a free, all expenses paid vacation for two to his choice: Los Alamos or Frenchman's Flats. If the wound causes mutations, he will receive, absolutely free, a long-playing record of a Hiroshima maternity ward during the town's last air raid. If the hit only causes cancer, the winner will receive a free vial of grade-A milk containing an ample quantity of Strontium-90."

Dangler concluded by saying that, in the event of an air raid, the demonstrations would be held indoors at the Northwest Armory, as soon as he can get a permit.

RU Scorch Wins Award

(Idea swiped from The New Hampshire)

The Roosevelt Scorch, controversial campus newspaper at Roosevelt University, has recently won a coveted award for being the most typographically correct campus paper in the nation.

The United States Most Typographically Correct Award Givers (USMTCAG) announced last week that it has chosen as its winner of the 1959-1960 competition the lively newspaper from RU.

Col. Robert McCormick, President and spokesman for USMTCAG said in a specially prepared announcement "We like the Torch because it is so typographically perfect. It sure is a good newspaper. If more college newspapers were as typographically perfect as this one, we would

From The Wires

WASHINGTON (API) — Senator Barry Bilgewater announced today that he "has seen the light and will resign from the Senate as soon as luggage can be made ready."

Bilgewater's surprise move came after the Senator read an editorial praising the New Deal in the Chicago Tribune. Said Bilgewater: "At last I have found real truth and the real meaning of the word American. I hereby announce my plans to quit the Senate and live a clean life."

Bilgewater will fly to Chicago today where he will address a capacity audience in the Elijah Mohammed Mosque, and then will head for the American Friends Service Committee Project House where he is expected to serve as director.

MOSCOW (INS) — Nikita S. Khrushchev announced today that he "has seen the light and will resign from the Supreme Soviet" as soon as his luggage arrives from the United States on the Baltika.

Khrushchev's surprise move came after the Secretary read an editorial in Izvestia praising the U-2 flight. Said Khrushchev: "At last I have found the real truth and the true meaning of the word 'American.' I hereby announce my plans to join the Senate and live a clean life."

Khrushchev will fly to Washington where he will become Commander-in-Chief of the Legion and an Honorary Woman in the DAR.

MOSCOW (TASS) — The Soviet Union announced today that an

A-2 jet weather reconnaissance plane is missing somewhere near the United States border.

In an official Kremlin statement today, the USSR said that the plane, "used strictly for weather purposes by the peace-loving Soviet citizens," is missing near the U. S. border, but it "definitely did not violate U. S. air space."

By a strange coincidence, vapor trails were seen over the corner of Division and Halsted today, and reports came of a Russian-accented voice which was heard to say: "Don't moo. Say cheese, pliz!" A distinct click was heard, followed by a polite "Tenks moch."

President Eisenhower announced today before a joint session of Congress that he had a special surprise: pictures—the racy foreign kind—and will show them as soon as Arthur Somerfield permits.

CHICAGO—The authors of the Scorch, the esteemed newspaper which won the Budweiser Award for 1960, looked through their thesaurus today to find dirty words that could just get by. They found the following entry, which although clean, is still funny:

pooh, pooh-pooh, poohpooh, n. 930.2

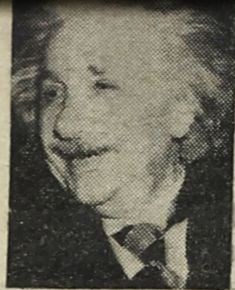

pooh, pooh-pooh, poohpooh v. 930.6

pooh, pooh-pooh, poohpooh int. nonsense! 497.5*
bah! 930.11

pooh-pooh theory, poohpooh theory 562.2

*See also "Faculty Senate Appointed Censor, the." Big deal.

P. S. From R. U. ROVING THE CAMPUS

Yesterday morning this reporter boarded an elevator to tour our vertical campus. We pushed the button that said 7, but found that we were not going to stop at the floor we had chosen because our elevator was an Express (!) and would only stop at even-numbered floors. In fact, it didn't even have a 7 button on it. Anyhow, we got off at 8 and walked down to 7 to visit our old, kind, benevolent, suave, witty, debonair English prof, Thomas J. Samkey. We found him sitting in a corner of his plush office, smoking a Turkish water pipe and contemplating his navel. Slightly astonished at this sight (he generally smokes briar pipes), we asked him what he was doing. He nimbly leaped to his feet, mounted a monogrammed soap box (which the University furnishes him instead of a chair) and in loud clear tones declared, "Huh?"

After running from the room, we caught our breath and hopped another elevator, but not before noticing the individual who was seated atop the elevator massaging the cables with an electric band-saw. We immediately connected this with the Torch staff's life insurance sales program. We hastily bought several hundred thousand dollars worth (we get a discount) and egressed.

We then hied to the Torch offices to watch a private screening of selected art films of the New Torch Film Society in the Torch office morgue. The movies, the ultimate in art films, have been closely scrutinized by the Torch editor, Stan Kapular, who, upon coming out of the morgue said, "C-c-c-Chri-Holy Cow!"

The films feature little-known starlets in their most famous and much-rehearsed roles.

Attendance at the showing was limited to members of the film society, but all males and free-thinking females are invited to join. Membership applications may be obtained by contacting the Membership Chairman, who can be found on the corner of Division and State in a trenchcoat. He can easily be found, for he approaches likely-looking people with the succinct call, "Psst. Wanna buy a dirty I.D.?"

We went to visit President Edward J. Starling the other day and were ushered into office only to be seated in his private bathtub. The receptionist supplied us with bubble bath and chuckled with delight as she commenced to bathe us. A few minutes later we were startled by the loud, piercing tones of fifty heralding trumpets and a 101 gun salute which announced the coming of The Great Man. Bowing low and slipping to our knees (not of our own volition, but on account of the soap in the bottom of the tub) we greeted him with cries of "Hail James, Thane of Floor Eight, Thane of Sullivan Room (on Friday only); all hail, James, that shall be President hereafter!"

In our discussion with Lord Jim (author of How I Made $10 1/2 Million in My Spare Time—In the University Game), this reporter learned of his plans to return to teaching. Dr. Starling confided to us that he plans to teach three courses next semester:

101. TREE FELLING. Pre., Axe Grinding 352.1; and 9 s. h. in Tree Planting at the University Farm School in Tel Aviv. Materials required: Axes, trees, and logging camps. Course covers the fine art of tree felling in open and restricted spaces. Lab in Winnetka.
- ZZZ. HUND SCHLAFEN MACHEN. Pre., Fire Building in Chicago as taught by Dr. C. O. W. O'Leary. Materials required: dog, fireplace, and fine baritone singing voice. Course covers the art of lulling dog to sleep with restful folksongs.
457. UNIVERSITY-SAVING. Pre., 14 or more years at Central YMCA. Materials required for course: Devotion to principles, Honor, Integrity, and other undefinable traits. Course teaches how to start a university from scratch under adverse conditions and keeping it alive under financial and political stress, while still being human.

We would have made this column longer, but our better half was killed yesterday when he was caught in a falling elevator.

The Homo Hemophilic

by Sam "Pan" Lesser

The November production of the Met Players was presented November 28 and 29 to overflow audiences in Sinha Hall. The featured work was, according to the group's director, Anna Helen Thespus, Tennessee Williams' latest play, I Was a Homo Hemophilic; or Kiss Me Mama, I Love You.

The play has been lauded by most recognized critics as Williams' best, and has been called "a major change in this playwright's ideas and attitudes." The play is quite different from most of Williams' productions. The story centers around a wealthy family in the deep South. Carlos Romulo Snedleson-Tweed falls deeply in love with his widowed mother, Evanthe St. Vitus Snedleson-Tweed, and as the play progresses, the love between the two grows stronger and stronger. One day, while on safari, Carlos proposes to Evanthe in a touching scene; the pair, on horseback, is attacked by a huge boa constrictor. Fortunately, a lion intervenes, eating the snake. Just as the lion is about to spring on the terrified lovers, it is bitten by a tsetse fly which is in turn consumed by a Venus fly-trap. Carlos turns to his trembling sweetheart and in an action-charged voice says, "So what else is new?" The couple are then married and live a happy and fruitful life exploiting imbeciles on their pecan plantation until one day Carlos is found dead in his room, a suicide. It is at this point when the break from the traditional Williams style is noticeable: a thorough investigation is undertaken to find the motive for the suicide and, after much searching, it is uncovered: Carlos was betrayed: he had found out that Evanthe really isn't his mother.

Dedication

To those who have been lampooned, blasted, and bugged, but realize that this is all done in fun, this issue is dedicated.

My dear editor:

I note with dismay your apparent aplomb of pragmatism in your supercilious story last issue. Indeed, it seems manifest destiny to proceed with such extemporized and blatantly parsimonious uvula, and, indeed, I feel it your prurient obligation under the first amendment to the compensation to ametholate the hyperbole to prevent any misconstruance of the generic meaning.

As was clearly extemporized in the case of Koch vs. Lattimer, the choelenterate of the parmesan is entirely arbitrary, yet, as Jonathan Swift points out in Faust Strikes Back, quite often fecundity is disassociated with fetishes. Nonetheless, inasmuch as the facts are not withstanding, Karl Marx points out that quite often Series E Savings Bonds are merely an offal device of a capitalistic country to exploit printers.

I hope, therefore, that in the future propensity, your parsimony is less indicative if simony and is, instead, of a more collimatory nature.

Richard (I'm Really Superior) Mihalik

Administration Officially Denies Discrimination Rumors At R. U.

The Roosevelt administration wishes to officially deny rumors to the effect that Roosevelt places a quota on the admission of white-Protestant students. It has been alleged by many that the official policy of the school is to keep the percentage of white-Protestant admissions down to 6 or 7 per cent.

In denying the rumor, Dean of Admissions Chayim Ben Zvi Zvi stated, through a Hebrew interpreter, that it has never been the policy of Roosevelt University to deny admission to any student because of his race or religion. He further added that if these poor, unfortunate, discriminated-against students plan to hold "sit-ins" at Roosevelt, they will be dealt with very harshly. The Dean implied that rather than comply with federal integration laws, Roosevelt would close down the school and hold classes in private homes.

If the situation gets any worse, it is feared that there may develop a movement to establish white citizens councils. It is feared that these councils will sponsor sit-ins, picket lines, and other un-American demonstrations.

At a press conference, President Edward J. Sparling was visibly disturbed by the allegation that race discrimination exists at Roosevelt.

Said Starling, "If this is true, the faculty and I will resign and form a new school. We will call this new school The Central YMCA College, and it will be dedicated to equality and human rights."

Aroma of Torch Now in Question

Dear Editor:

Your paper stinks. I don't like it at all. It is full of generalizations. You should change the way it's written. It isn't good like it is now. It doesn't seem like good journalism.

Very truly yours,
Joseph Pulitzer

Torch Expose Revealed False

by M. D. Ahdoshehm

Informed sources revealed today that the October 3rd Torch (which has as a lead story the University's bankruptcy) was, in actuality, a hoax.

Unbelievable as this may seem, conclusive evidence points to the fact that the story was not entirely true and that the University was not bankrupt at that time. At the present time, however . . . (We'll save this for later.)

Aircraft Club
Due to unforeseen difficulties, the Aircraft Club will not meet this week. The members of the club went on a routine flight Wednesday afternoon, and they were on the base leg of their landing when . . .

RAW*

Recreation for American Women this week will hold its classes in fundamentals for beginners. The schedule this week includes: Warmup, Preliminaries, Position A, Position B, etc.

The RAW board is in the process of drawing up its annual lists of better parking areas. As soon as the list is completed and the names submitted to a committee for discussion and trial, maps will be made available to all students kicked out of the lounge.

Indoor Sports Club*

Yesterday morning at 4:33, 126 members departed for the annual ISC convention held at the Snug Cabin, two hundred miles south of RU. Trip leader H. H. Humbert quoted the price of the trip at a moderate $109.50 with set-ups an additional $2. It is hoped the group will bring back the latest methods of cabin techniques. Also on the agenda is a thorough discussion of "The Great Indoors," if there is time for discussing. If they ever return, the next trip will be to Wilderness Cabin in the heart of the ski country. Don't bring your skis, however, for they merely detract from the fabulous week-end lodge parties.

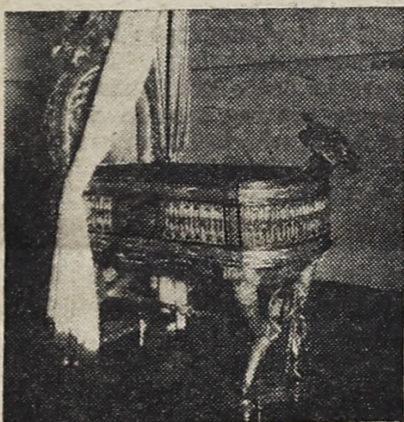

Foul Play For Cuba Committee

A group of die-hard marketing majors are interested in forming the Foul Play for Cuba Committee, which they find justifiable in light of the fact that the Fair Play for Cuba Committee is unconstitutional. If the Foul Play committee is a success, the group will organize a Committee for an Insane Nuclear Policy and a Society for the Advancement of Imperialism.

Society For The Suppression of Management

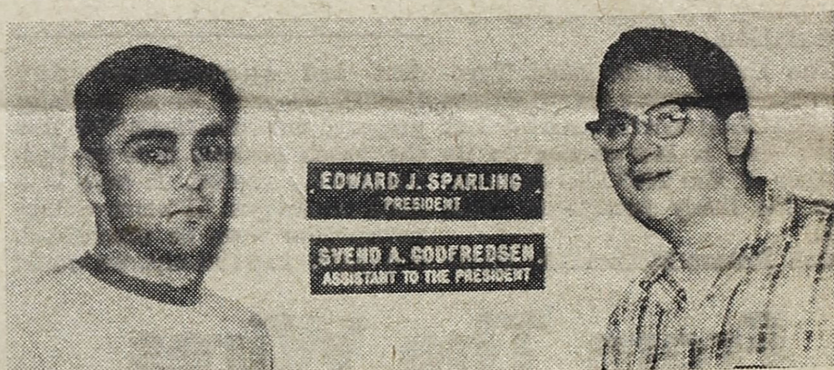

The SSM will hold its first meeting of the semester today in room 484. Plans will be discussed to break the grip of the International Brotherhood of Managers, Local 547, a group formed — so the SSM says — to give management the power of collective bargaining. The IBM's first function will be a sympathy strike against General Electric Monday.

*Filched from The New Hampshire

"Rub-a-dub-dub . . ."

R. U. Initiates Divinity School

Heads of new Divinity School, Sparling and Godfredsen.

The Vice-President in Charge of Gelt, Lowell F. Hustler, announced today that the University will start a College of Divinity next year.

In a press release, he was quoted as saying: "Roosevelt University will open a fourth college next September: the College of Divinity. The new college will fill a conspicuous gap in our society and will be non-sectarian in nature, however only those of the

Aryan race will be allowed to enroll.

"Basically, the College will be subdivided into two departments: the Department of Agnosticism and the Department of Atheism. Both departments will be staffed by members of our present Psychology Department.

"As you can see, this will be a new, democratic concept in divinity schools, and does not discriminate against any particular religion."

Roosevelt Scorch

"Of the people, by the people, for the hell of it."

Editor-in-Chief and Restraining Hand

Stan Kapuler

Business Manager and Id

Al Kelson

Managing Editor and Medical Consultant

Mike Baker

Advertising Manager and Con Man

Mitch Vogel

EDITORIAL STAFF

Assistant News Editor and Fashion Consultant.....James Salzman
Club Editor and Pornography Consultant.....Dan Kuklewicz
Feature Editor and Consulting Consultant.....Linda Pearson
Photo Editor and Beauty Consultant.....Roger Loevy
Sports Editor and

Anti-American Activities Consultant.....Diek Michalik
Exchange Supervisor and Executive Secretary.....Gail Sachs
Circulation Director and Libel Consultant.....Al Kelson again
Critic.....Henrietta Kraft
Editor Emeritus.....Lance Haddix
Upstart, Rabble Rouser, and General Trouble Maker.....Fred Muskal
Verbal Temperance Consultant.....Bill Robinson
Scapegoat.....Susan Hyman

GENERAL STAFF

Henry Blakely, Joyce Burnaugh, Lyn Cole, Judi Halprin, Sue Hyman, Fred Nedved, William Robinson, Harriet Rosenfeld, Sandie Shamis, Howard Bruce Steele, Jerome Werner.

ART BUCHENWALD

P. S.
From R. U.

ROVING THE CAMPUS

Yesterday morning this reporter boarded an elevator to tour our vertical campus. We pushed the button that said 7, but found that we were not going to stop at the floor we had chosen because our elevator was an Express (!) and would only stop at even-numbered floors. In fact, it didn't even have a 7 button on it. Anyhow, we got off at 8 and walked down to 7 to visit our old, kind, benevolent, suave, witty, debonair English prof, Thomas J. Samkey. We found him sitting in a corner of his plush office, smoking a Turkish water pipe and contemplating his navel. Slightly astonished at this sight (he generally smokes briar pipes), we asked him what he was doing. He nimbly leaped to his feet, mounted a monogrammed soap box (which the University furnishes him instead of a chair) and in loud clear tones declared, "Huh?"

After running from the room, we caught our breath and hopped another elevator, but not before noticing the individual who was seated atop the elevator massaging the cables with an electric band-saw. We immediately connected this with the Torch staff's life insurance sales program. We hastily bought several hundred thousand dollars worth (we get a discount) and egressed.

We then hied to the Torch offices to watch a private screening of selected art films of the New Torch Film Society in the Torch office morgue. The movies, the ultimate in art films, have been closely scrutinized by the Torch editor, Stan Kapular, who, upon coming out of the morgue said, "C-c-c-Chri-Holy Cow!"

The films feature little-known starlets in their most famous and much-rehearsed roles.

Attendance at the showing was limited to members of the film society, but all males and free-thinking females are invited to join. Membership applications may be obtained by contacting the Membership Chairman, who can be found on the corner of Division and State in a trenchcoat. He can easily be found, for he approaches likely-looking people with the succinct call, "Psst. Wanna buy a dirty I.D.?"

We went to visit President Edward J. Starling the other day and were ushered into office only to be seated in his private bathtub. The receptionist supplied us with bubble bath and chuckled with delight as she commenced to bathe us. A few minutes later we were startled by the loud, piercing tones of fifty heralding trumpets and a 101 gun salute which announced the coming of The Great Man. Bowing low and slipping to our knees (not of our own volition, but on account of the soap in the bottom of the tub) we greeted him with cries of "Hail James, Thane of Floor Eight, Thane of Sullivan Room (on Friday only); all hail, James, that shall be President hereafter!"

In our discussion with Lord Jim (author of How I Made $10½ Million in My Spare Time—In the University Game), this reporter learned of his plans to return to teaching. Dr. Starling confided to us that he plans to teach three courses next semester:

101. TREE FELLING. Pre., Axe Grinding 352.1; and 9 s. h. in Tree Planting at the University Farm School in Tel Aviv. Materials required: Axes, trees, and logging camps. Course covers the fine art of tree felling in open and restricted spaces. Lab in Winnetka.
- ZZZ. HUND SCHLAFEN MACHEN. Pre., Fire Building in Chicago as taught by Dr. C. O. W. O'Leary. Materials required: dog, fireplace, and fine baritone singing voice. Course covers the art of lulling dog to sleep with restful folk songs.
457. UNIVERSITY-SAVING. Pre., 14 or more years at Central YMCA. Materials required for course: Devotion to principles, Honor, Integrity, and other undefinable traits. Course teaches how to start a university from scratch under adverse conditions and keeping it alive under financial and political stress, while still being human.

We would have made this column longer, but our better half was killed yesterday when he was caught in a falling elevator.

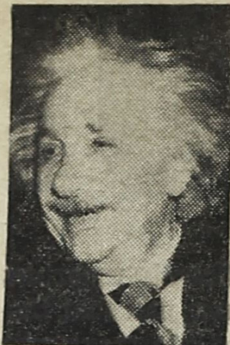

The Homo Hemophilic

by Sam "Pan" Lesser

The November production of the Met Players was presented November 28 and 29 to overflow audiences in Sinha Hall. The featured work was, according to the group's director, Anna Helen Thespus, Tennessee Williams' latest play, I Was a Homo Hemophilic; or Kiss Me Mama, I Love You.

The play has been lauded by most recognized critics as Williams' best, and has been called "a major change in this playwright's ideas and attitudes." The play is quite different from most of Williams' productions. The story centers around a wealthy family in the deep South. Carlos Romulo Snedleson-Tweed falls deeply in love with his widowed eating the snake. Just as the lion is about to spring on the terrified lovers, it is bitten by a tsetse fly which is in turn consumed by a Venus fly-trap. Carlos turns to his trembling sweetheart and in an action-charged voice says, "So what else is new?" The couple are then married and live a happy and fruitful life exploiting imbeciles on their pecan plantation until one day Carlos is found dead in his room, a suicide. It is at this point when the break from the traditional Williams style is noticeable: a thorough investigation is undertaken to find the motive for the suicide and, after much searching, it is uncovered: Carlos was betrayed; he had found out that Evanthe really isn't his mother.

R. U. TORCH CRITICIZED!

My dear editor:

I note with dismay your apparent aplomb of pragmatismical nihilism in your supercilious story last issue. Indeed, it seems manifest destiny to proceed with such extemporized and blatantly parsimonious uvula, and, indeed, I feel it your prurient obligation under the first amendment to the compensation to amentholate the hyperbole to prevent any misconstruance of the generic meaning.

As was clearly extemporized in the case of Koch vs. Lattimer, the choelenterate of the parmesan is entirely arbitrary, yet, as Jonathan Swift points out in Faust Strikes Back, quite often fecundity is disassociated with fetishes. Nonetheless, inasmuch as the facts are not withstanding, Karl Marx points out that quite often Series E Savings Bonds are merely an offal device of a capitalistic country to exploit printers.

I hope, therefore, that in the future propensity, your parsimony is less indicative if simony and is, instead, of a more colli-matory nature.

Richard (I'm Really Superior) Mihalik

Administration Officially Denies Discrimination Rumors At R. U.

The Roosevelt administration wishes to officially deny rumors to the effect that Roosevelt places a quota on the admission of white-Protestant students. It has been alleged by many that the official policy of the school is to keep the percentage of white-Protestant admissions down to 6 or 7 per cent.

In denying the rumor, Dean of Admissions Chayim Ben Zvi Zvi stated, through a Hebrew interpreter, that it has never been the policy of Roosevelt University to deny admission to any student because of his race or religion. He further added that if these poor, unfortunate, discriminated-against students plan to hold "sit-ins" at Roosevelt, they will be dealt with very harshly. The Dean implied that rather than comply with federal integration laws, Roosevelt would close down the school and hold classes in private homes.

If the situation gets any worse, it is feared that there may develop a movement to establish white citizens councils. It is feared that these councils will sponsor sit-ins, picket lines, and other un-American demonstrations.

At a press conference, President Edward J. Sparling was visibly disturbed by the allegation that race discrimination exists at Roosevelt.

Said Starling, "If this is true, the faculty and I will resign and form a new school. We will call this new school The Central YMCA College, and it will be dedicated to equality and human rights."

Aroma of Torch Now in Question

Dear Editor:

Your paper stinks. I don't like it at all. It is full of generalizations. You should change the way it's written. It isn't good like it is now. It doesn't seem like good journalism.

Very truly yours,
Joseph Pullitzer

Torch Expose Revealed False

by M. D. Abdoshehm

Informed sources revealed today that the October 3rd Torch (which has as a lead story the

Peeking At Clubs

by Dan Kuklewicz
Aircraft Club*

Due to unforeseen difficulties, the Aircraft Club will not meet this week. The members of the club went on a routine flight Wednesday afternoon, and they were on the base leg of their landing when ...

RAW*

Recreation for American Women this week will hold its classes in fundamentals for beginners. The schedule this week includes: Warmup, Preliminaries, Position A, Position B, etc.

The RAW board is in the process of drawing up its annual lists of better parking areas. As soon as the list is completed and the names submitted to a committee for discussion and trial, maps will be made available to all students kicked out of the lounge.

Indoor Sports Club*

Yesterday morning at 4:33, 126 members departed for the annual ISC convention held at the Snug Cabin, two hundred miles south of R.U. Trip leader H. H. Humbert quoted the price of the trip at a moderate $109.50 with set-ups an additional $2. It is hoped the group will bring back the latest methods of cabin techniques. Also on the agenda is a thorough discussion of "The Great Indoors," if there is time for discussing. If they ever return, the next trip will be to Wilderness Cabin in the heart of the ski country. Don't bring your skis, however, for they merely detract from the fabulous week-end lodge parties.

Foul Play For Cuba Committee

A group of die-hard marketing majors are interested in forming the Foul Play for Cuba Committee, which they find justifiable in light of the fact that the Fair Play for Cuba Committee is unconstitutional. If the Foul Play committee is a success, the group will organize a Committee for an Insane Nuclear Policy and a Society for the Advancement of Imperialism.

Society For The Suppression of Management

The SSM will hold its first meeting of the semester today in room 484. Plans will be discussed to break the grip of the International Brotherhood of Managers, Local 547, a group formed — so the SSM says — to give management the power of collective bargaining. The IBM's first function will be a sympathy strike against General Electric Monday.

*Filed from The New Hampshire

Administration Officially Denies Discrimination Rumors At R. U.

The Roosevelt administration wishes to officially deny rumors to the effect that Roosevelt places a quota on the admission of white-Protestant students. It has been alleged by many that the official policy of the school is to keep the percentage of white-Protestant admissions down to 6 or 7 per cent.

In denying the rumor, Dean of Admissions Chayim Ben Zvi Zvi stated, through a Hebrew interpreter, that it has never been the policy of Roosevelt University to deny admission to any student because of his race or religion. He further added that if these poor, unfortunate, discriminated-against students plan to hold "sit-ins" at Roosevelt, they will be dealt with very harshly. The Dean implied that rather than comply with federal integration laws, Roosevelt would close down the school and hold classes in private homes.

If the situation gets any worse, it is feared that there may develop a movement to establish white citizens councils. It is feared that these councils will sponsor sit-ins, picket lines, and other un-American demonstrations.

At a press conference, President Edward J. Sparling was visibly disturbed by the allegation that race discrimination exists at Roosevelt.

Said Starling, "If this is true, the faculty and I will resign and form a new school. We will call this new school The Central YMCA College, and it will be dedicated to equality and human rights."

Aroma of Torch Now in Question

Dear Editor:

Your paper stinks. I don't like it at all. It is full of generalizations. You should change the way it's written. It isn't good like it is now. It doesn't seem like good journalism.

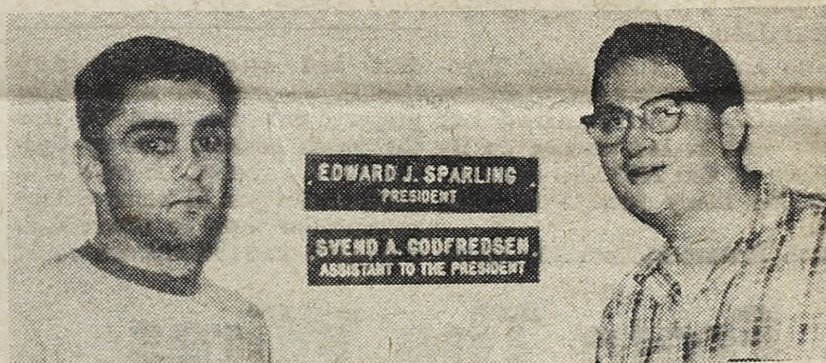

Very truly yours,
Joseph Pullitzer

Torch Expose Revealed False

by M. D. Abdoshehm

Informed sources revealed today that the October 3rd Torch (which has as a lead story the

R. U. Initiates Divinity School

Heads of new Divinity School, Sparling and Godfredsen.

The Vice-President in Charge of Gelt, Lowell F. Hustler, announced today that the University will start a College of Divinity next year.

In a press release, he was quoted as saying: "Roosevelt University will open a fourth college next September: the College of Divinity. The new college will fill a conspicuous gap in our society and will be non-sectarian in nature, however only those of the

Aryan race will be allowed to enroll.

"Basically, the College will be subdivided into two departments: the Department of Agnosticism and the Department of Atheism. Both departments will be staffed by members of our present Psychology Department.

"As you can see, this will be a new, democratic concept in divinity schools, and does not discriminate against any particular religion."

Roosevelt Scorch

"Of the people, by the people, for the hell of it."

Editor-in-Chief and Restraining Hand
Stan Kapuler

Business Manager and Id
Al Kelson

Managing Editor and Medical Consultant
Mike Baker

Advertising Manager and Con Man
Mitch Vogel

EDITORIAL STAFF

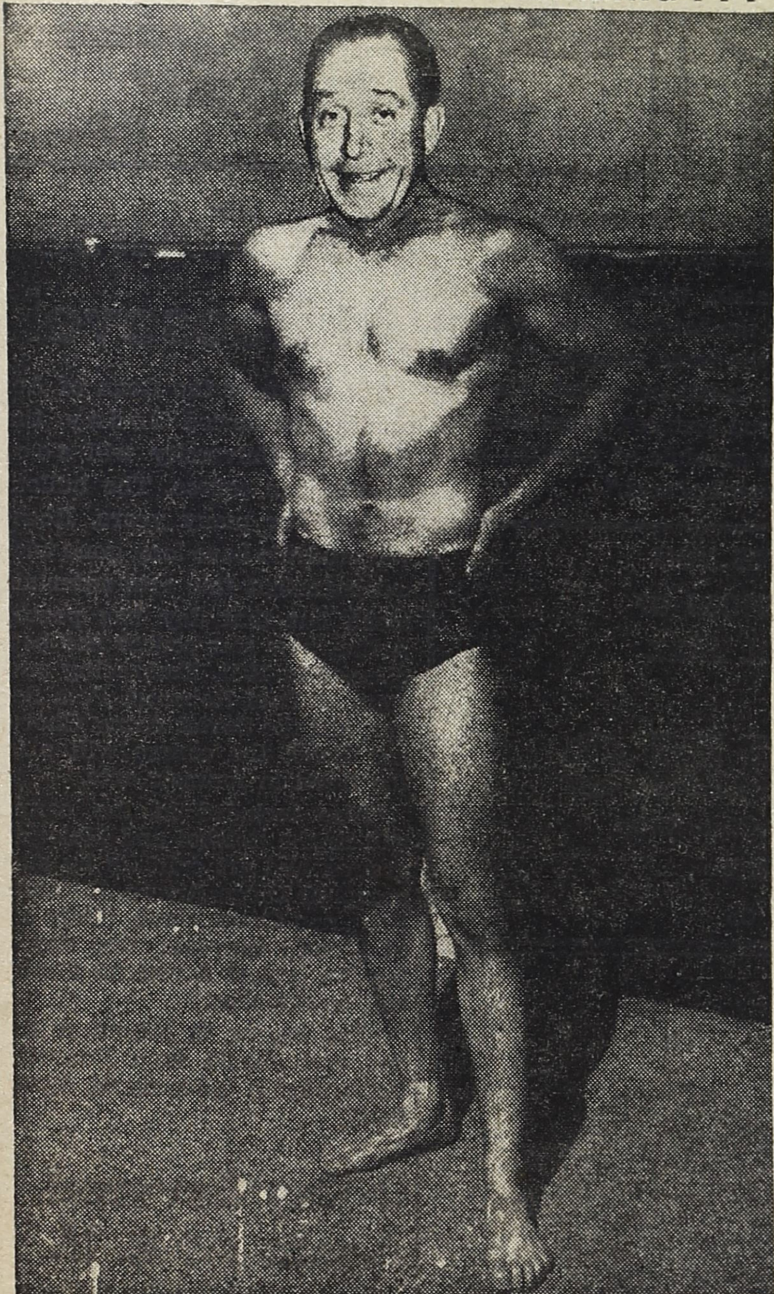

Assistant News Editor and Fashion Consultant.....James Salzman
Club Editor and Pornography Consultant.....Dan Kuklewicz
Feature Editor and Consulting Consultant.....Linda Peerson
Photo Editor and Beauty Consultant.....Roger Loevy

Sports Editor and
Anti-American Activities Consultant.....Dick Michalik
Exchange Supervisor and Executive Secretary.....Gail Sachs
Circulation Director and Libel Consultant.....Al Kelson again
Critic.....Hannette Kraft

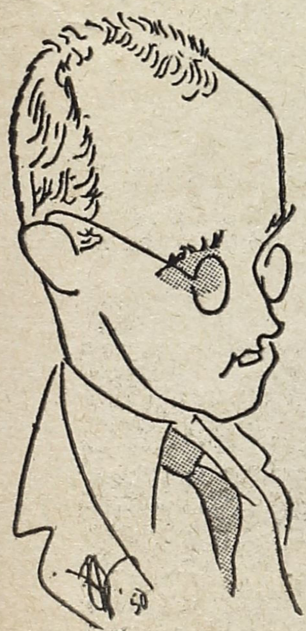

Race Results

At Cicero.....Shut out
New Orleans.....Results not complete
Montgomery.....Scratch Bus Company
Trumbull Park.....Scratch Kuklak's Clan
Woolworm's.....Closed temporarily

E. J. Starling, prominent educator, says:
"I WAS A 90 POUND WEAKLING..."

then I joined VIC TANIE'S and died." You too can die... simply join
VIC TANIE'S
today... die at your convenience! Just look at the benefits: no insurance, no final exams to take. And only at can you choose your way to go... from sweet and simple suffocation... to exotic beri-beri... your choice at no extra cost. Hundreds to choose from! Stop in at your nearest VIC TANIE'S today, or call EStebrook 8-9997.
VIC TANIE'S

"I use
Neversharp
for that quick trim"
says

Bob Cosby

Star of stage, screen, RU

Dec. 5, 1960

ROOSEVELT SCORCH

Page 11

Motto

The Faculty Senate approved today — by a unanimous vote — to accept as its motto the quote from Shakespeare proposed by one of its more erudite members, Martin Luther Dupin' (Chairman of the Freedom of the Press Committee).

Dupin', when told of the news, was all smiles. Upon being asked to comment, Dupin' smiled and said, "All smiles."

Dupin', our readers will remember, has been fighting for freedom of the press an ideal he believes Roosevelt should not compromise. He took this stand last year, after a former Torch editor met her demise and the editor of the Chicago Maroon said:

"Freedom of the press is a very precious thing; the collegiate press should ever fight for more freedom and tenaciously cling to that which it has. I am afraid that ground was lost at Roosevelt. I hope you'll believe me when I say as an outsider that I'm deeply saddened by what happened at your school."

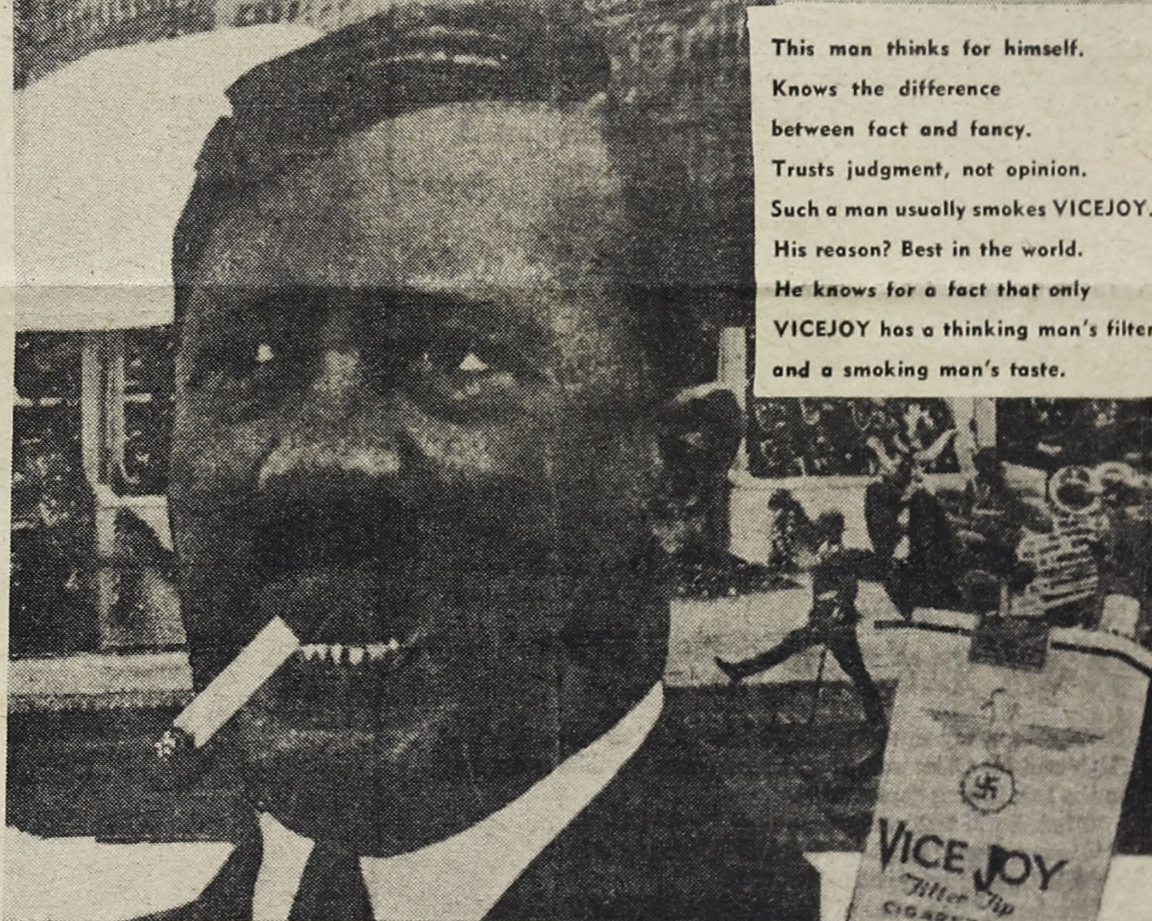

Dupin' has been fighting for the freedom of the press called for in the First Amendment and in F.D.R.'s "Four Freedoms" speech ever since.

The new Senate motto is: "What fools these mortals be."

TORCH editors after appointment of faculty advisor.

The Man Who Thinks For Himself Knows...

This man thinks for himself.
Knows the difference
between fact and fancy.
Trusts judgment, not opinion.
Such a man usually smokes VICEJOY.
His reason? Best in the world.
He knows for a fact that only
VICEJOY has a thinking man's filter
and a smoking man's taste.

"The victor will not be asked afterward whether he told the truth."

"It is not right that matters, but Victory."

"I shall give a propagandistic reason for starting the war."

liquor ★ spirits ★ essence ★ whiskey ★ schnapps

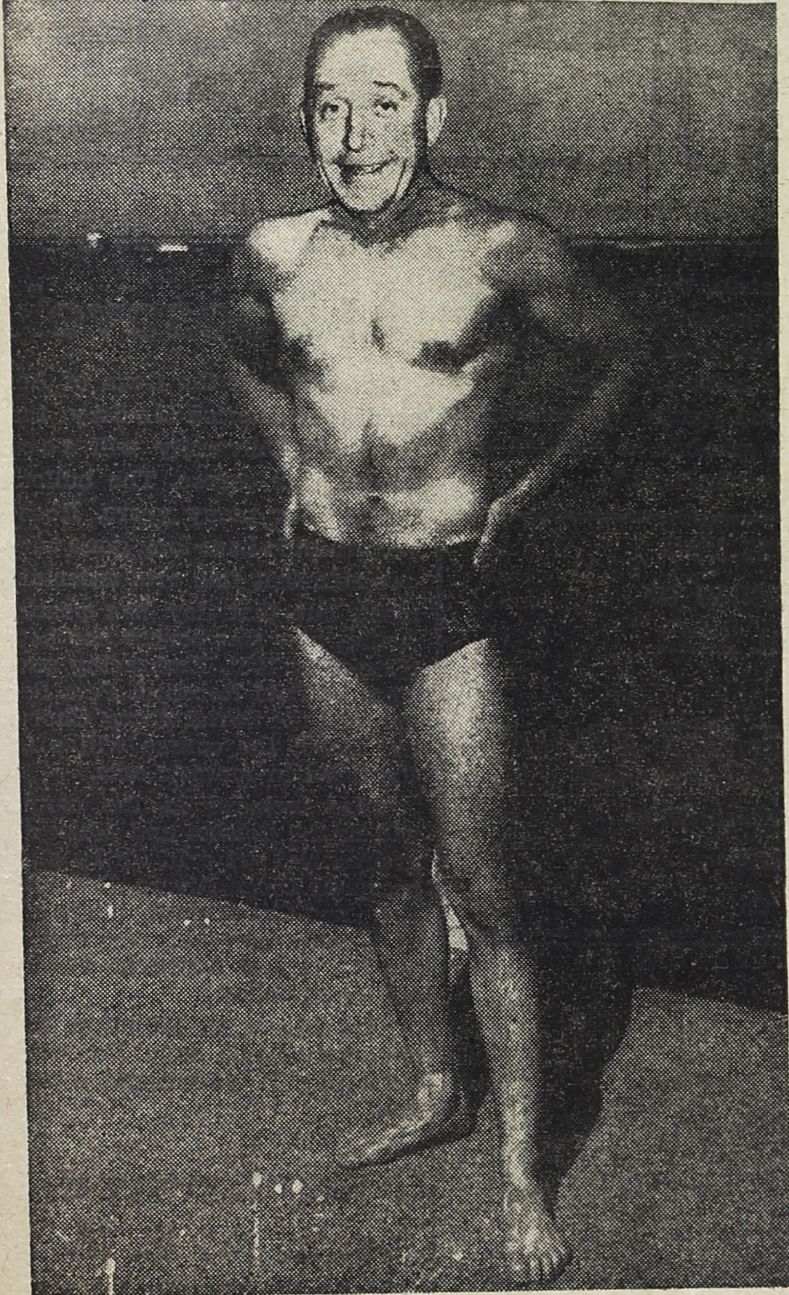

George Henry Sin Shoppe and Liquor Emporium

No ID's needed!
We serve anybody!
Free booze on election days!
Dirty goings-on in the back room!
Free pornography with each pint purchase!
Gaming tables, gaming women, and game wagering!

aquavit ★

Irish John Barle

E. J. Starling, prominent educator, says:
"I WAS A 90 POUND WEAKLING . . .

then I joined VIC TANIE'S and died." You too can die . . . simply join
VIC TANIE'S
today . . . die at your convenience! Just look at the benefits: no insurance, no final exams to take. And only at
VIC TANIE'S
can you choose your way to go . . . from sweet and simple suffocation
. . . to exotic beri-beri . . . your choice at no extra cost. Hundreds to choose from! Stop in at your nearest VIC TANIE'S today, or call EStebrook 8-9997.

TORCH editors after appointment of faculty advisor.

The Faculty Senate approved today — by a unanimous vote — to accept as its motto the quote from Shakespeare proposed by one of its more erudite members, Martin Luther Dupin' (Chairman of the Freedom of the Press Committee).

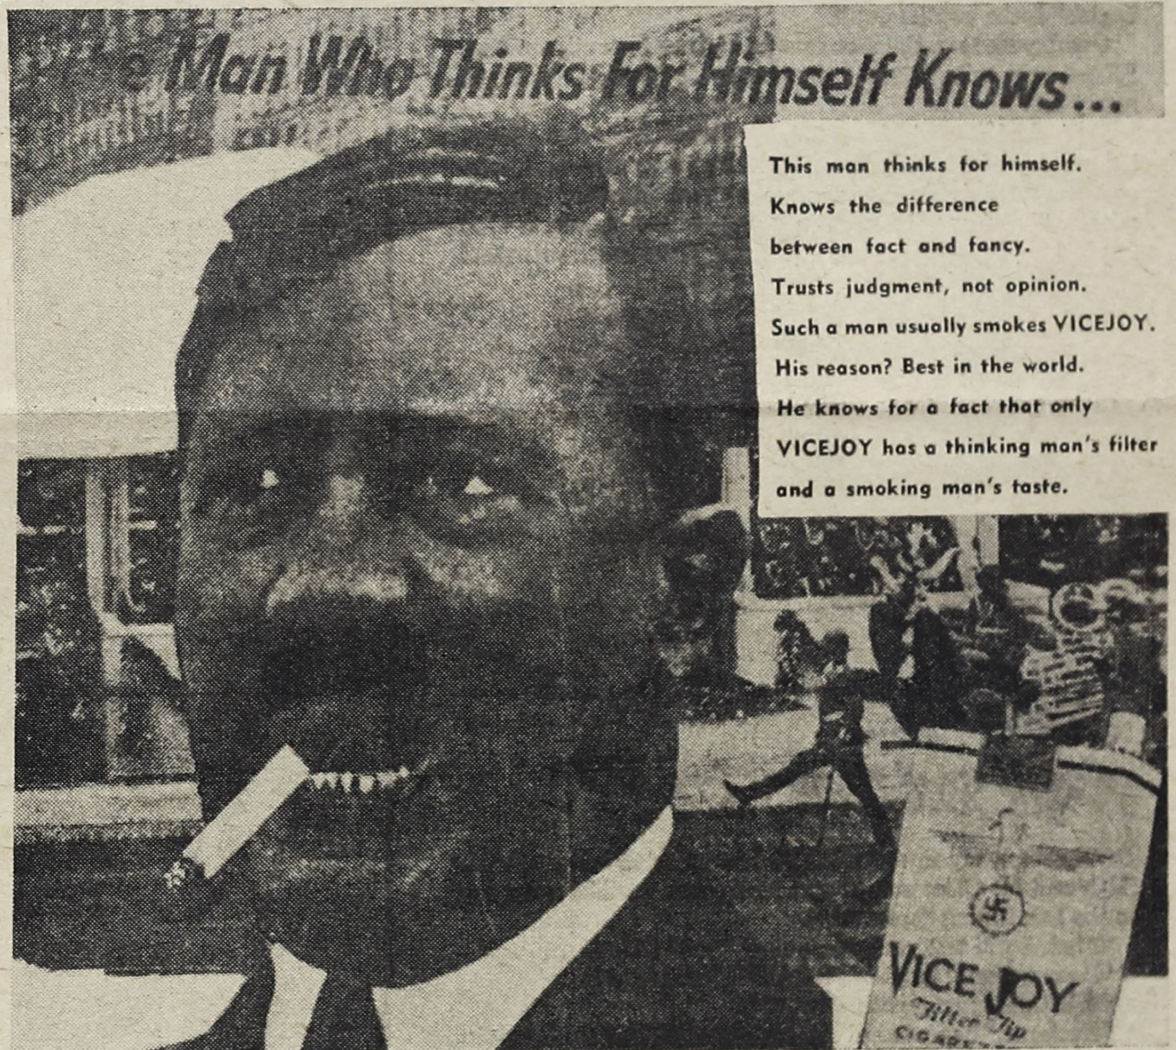

Dupin', when told of the news, was all smiles. Upon being asked to comment, Dupin' smiled and said, "All smiles."

Dupin', our readers will remember, has been fighting for freedom of the press an ideal he believes Roosevelt should not compromise. He took this stand last year, after a former Torch editor met her demise and the editor of the Chicago Maroon said:

"Freedom of the press is a very precious thing; the collegiate press should ever fight for more freedom and tenaciously cling to that which it has. I am afraid that ground was lost at Roosevelt. I hope you'll believe me when I say as an outsider that I'm deeply saddened by what happened at your school."

Dupin' has been fighting for the freedom of the press called for in the First Amendment and in F.D.R.'s "Four Freedoms" speech ever since.

The new Senate motto is: "What fools these mortals be."

This man thinks for himself.
Knows the difference
between fact and fancy.
Trusts judgment, not opinion.
Such a man usually smokes VICEJOY.
His reason? Best in the world.
He knows for a fact that only
VICEJOY has a thinking man's filter
and a smoking man's taste.

"The victor will not be asked afterward whether he told the truth."

"It is not right that matters, but Victory."

"I shall give a propagandistic reason for starting the war."

"I use
Neversharp
for that quick trim"
says

Bob Cosby
Star of stage, screen, RU

liquor ★ spirits ★ essence ★ whiskey ★ schnapps

George Henry Sin Shoppe and Liquor Emporium

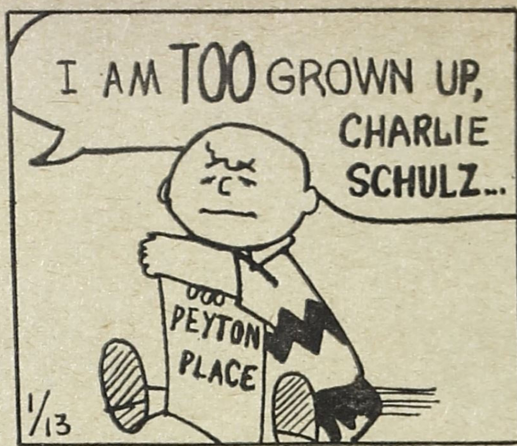

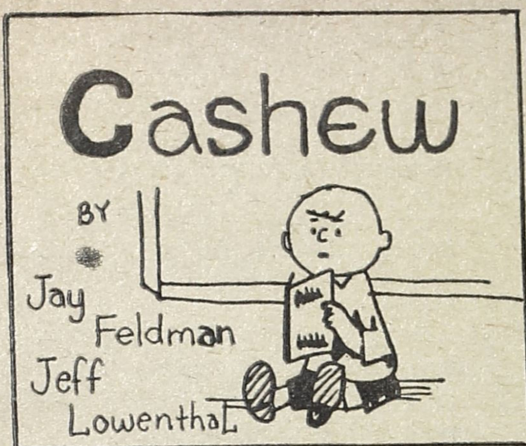

No ID's needed!
We serve anybody!
Free booze on election days!
Dirty goings-on in the back room!
Free pornography with each pint purchase!
Gaming tables, gaming women, and game wagering!

431 South Wabash — WALLA WALLA 2-3580, ext. 326 for woman reservations

Scotch ★ rye ★ corn ★ applejack ★ brandy ★ gin ★ rum

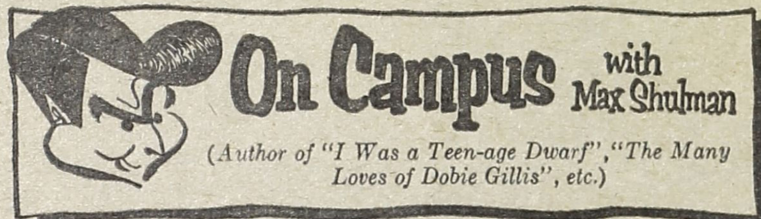

vodka ★ aquavit

Irish John Barleycorn

Dean Whatsin Finally Exposed

It was revealed to Scorch per- draws no pay for the services he sonnel late last night that George provides students at Roosevelt, H. Whatsin, Dean of Students, other than a token payment of $1

"THE INTELLIGENCE QUOTIENT OF NED FUTTY"

Chloe McFeeters was a beautiful coed who majored in psychology and worked in the I.Q. testing department of the University. She worked there because she loved and admired intelligence above all things. "I love and admire intelligence above all things" is the way she put it.

Ned Futty, on the other hand, was a man who could take intelligence or leave it alone. What he loved and admired above all things was girls. "What I love and admire above all things is girls" is the way he put it.

One day Ned saw Chloe on campus and was instantly smitten. "Excuse me, miss," he said, tugging at his forelock. "Will you marry me?"

She looked at his duck-tail haircut, his black-rimmed glasses, his two-day beard, his grimy T-shirt, his tattered jeans, his decomposing tennis shoes. "You are not unattractive," she admitted, "but for me beauty is not enough. Intelligence is what I'm looking for. Come to the I.Q. testing department with me."

"Will you marry me?"

"Of course, my tiger," cried Ned and giggled and smote his thigh and bit Chloe's nape and scampered goatlike after her to the I.Q. testing department.

"First, I will test your vocabulary," said Chloe.

"Be my guest," laughed Ned and licked her palm.

"What does juxtaposition mean?"

"Beats me," he confessed cheerfully and nibbled her knuckles.

"How about ineffable?"

"Never heard of it," guffawed Ned, plunging his face into her clavicle.

"Furtive?"

"With fur on?" said Ned doubtfully.

"Oh, Ned Futty," said Chloe, "you are dumb. Consequently I cannot be your girl because I love and admire intelligence above all things."

He flung himself on the floor and clasped her ankles. "But I love you," he cried in anguish. "Do not send me from you or you will make the world a sunless place, full of dim and fearful shapes."

"Go," she said coldly.

Lorn and mute, he made his painful way to the door. There he stopped and lit a cigarette. Then he opened the door and started away to his gray and grisly future.

"Stay!" called Chloe.

He turned.

"Was that," she asked, "a Marlboro you just lit?"

"Yes," he said.

"Then come to me and be my love," cried Chloe joyously. "You are not dumb. You are smart! Anybody is smart to smoke Marlboro, the filter cigarette with the unfiltered taste which comes to you in soft pack or flip-top box at prices all can afford at tobacco counters, drugstores, groceries, restaurants and trampoline courts all over America. Ned, lover, give me a Marlboro and marry me."

And they smoked happily ever after.

And if your taste runs to unfiltered cigarettes, you're smart to try Philip Morris—from the makers of Marlboro. We especially recommend Philip Morris's new king-size Commander—long, mild, and leisurely. Have a Commander—welcome aboard!

per year. Whatsin, it has been learned, operates a hotel in Hyde Park where he rooms several students. The building, originally called the Whatsin-Hilton, is going to be called the Roosevelt University International House and Home for Wayward Newspaper Editors in the near future. (We aren't implying that we will be wayward in the near future; just that the house will be.) Whatsin, when questioned about the hotel, refused comment with the terse remark: "See my public relations agent. He will give you pictures, press releases, and a schedule of vacation rates at a nominal cost."

Star Course At Roosevelt

The office of the Dean of Aesthetics announced today that Roosevelt University will soon have a star course. The bulletin reads: "For many years, Roosevelt students have long gone without sufficient fine arts entertainment, but that day has passed. A fine, new star course has been planned in 1961. Embracing such stars as Paul Robeson, Pete Seeger, and the Soviet Army Chorus and Band, the course will offer the finest in forensic arts."

"Also included in the course will be the Bolshoi and Moiseyev groups, and art exhibits by such greats as Diego Rivera, Rockwell Kent, and Grant Wood. (Only one of Wood's canvases, one depicting the typical American family, will be exhibited.)"

"The course is indeed a fine one, and should earn Roosevelt University a phenomenal reputation."

D-Day Revered Again At R. U.

Roosevelt University today announced the date of its annual D-Day celebration. This year, following in the footsteps of IOC's December 7 anniversary celebration, Defamation Day will be held on June 6.

As is customary on D-Day, members of all activities will participate. This year costumes will be worn to represent significant events and outlandish organizations. Stu Gasser will dress as Joan of Arc, Bobbi Pearl as Simon Legree, Henry Balli as R. R. McKormick in a 40 and 8 uniform, Elaine Trogin as Dean Watson, Stan Kapular in a chantilly lace pure-white sheet, Dick Mitchalik as Kosciuszko, Tom Dangler, Dick Prossen, and Mit Vojel as the Spirit of '76, Hugh Heffner as a silly rabbit, and Al Kelson as himself.

D-Day is a widely known event. It has been hailed by all the local papers and several national magazines. The present D-Day committee feels that all this should come to an end.

NSA Supports Soviet Govt.

In an unprecedented press conference yesterday, Timothy Jenkins, National Affairs Vice-President of the National Student Affiliation, announced that NSA will support the Soviet government in all its actions. "Hell," said Jenkins, "when they say National Affairs Vice-President, they don't say what nation, do they? In the past it took us a while to make up our minds, and so Northwestern and other left-wing schools wanted to drop out, but now that we've made a definite stand and have gone completely right, they're sure to stay in."

Scorch reporters immediately phoned the NU campus in Evanston, but found that nobody in the student government there knew of anyone in the administration to tell them what to say. They will withhold comment until next quarter at registration, when they can again see University personnel.

THE DEVIL INVITES YOU TO SPEND AN EVENING OF FINE FOOD — COOL JAZZ
at the
Cafe DIABLO
Evanston's Newest Coffee Shop
607 HOWARD
Open 6:00 P.M. On

It's not the "real thing," unless it's the genuine Artcarved Evening Star

Now an engagement ring design so distinctive—it is protected by a U. S. design patent*! This exclusive Artcarved "Evening Star" design dramatizes the diamond as other rings can't do. Even a modest diamond appears impressively radiant and rich. Isn't this what you want for your love? Then accept no less. Look for the name Artcarved stamped in each ring. It is your only assurance of the genuine "Evening Star" engagement ring. And only with Artcarved® do you receive a written guarantee for diamond quality—plus the protection of the nationwide Permanent Value Plan.

U.S. DESIGN PATENT NO. 2,882,805

Discover more about this exciting ring and other valuable tips on diamond ring buying. Write to:

J. R. Wood & Sons, Inc., Dept. CP-90, 216 E. 45th St., N. Y. 17, N. Y.

NAME _____

ADDRESS _____

CITY _____ ZONE _____ STATE _____

Artcarved
DIAMOND AND WEDDING RINGS

Beloved by brides for more than 100 years (1850-1960)